The annual LMC picnic was held on August 13. Although the threat of rain kept several away, the picnic went on as scheduled with very little precipitation. Chef Ray "Magic" Adams served up over 30 meals, and our gala show featured Mike Woodward of Lexington. Magic Adams and Uncle Red also were featured, and almost everyone agreed that the show was excellent. Thanks to all those that worked hard on the picnic but received no recognition (except maybe a cheeseburger). Let's do it again next year!

September 9 is "It's Magic", our annual fundraiser. This year's show hosts several big illusions, and thirteen (if I counted correctly) different performers. Please sell or buy at least two tickets - your involvement insures that we can continue with our excellent lectures and other activities.

Our October meeting is a big secret! (that means we haven't scheduled anything). Stephen Baratz was scheduled to lecture but he had to cancel. An email will go out shortly with October's meeting information. November and December are already scheduled, and 2017 will be here before you know it.

From the Editor:

We had a great picnic, I know the weather sacred a few away but it turned out to be a ice day with lots of fun, family and magic.

It's time for It's Magic!, our big show and our annual fund raiser which gives us the income to bring in all the great lecturers that we have throughout the year. We really need your help for this years It's Magic! show. If every member would purchase just 2 tickets that would help tremendously. If you can't go to the show then find someone with a child and give them the tickets and let them experience the joy of magic.

Spread the word... I also need help distributing posters. If you know a business with high traffic in the area please ask if they will hang up one of our posters. Also tell everyone in your family, tell your friends, your church (my church lets me hang posters up!), share the facebook posts - tell people on twitter - it's really simple to promote this show.

Tickets run $10 for Adults and $8 for Children. Where can you find better quality entertainment at THAT price? Online ticket sales are up and running and we're already selling tickets. The link is <https://lmc.ticketleap.com/its-magic-2016/>
