The Society of American Magicians usually declares October as Magic Month and the last week of the month as Magic Week in honor of Harry Houdini, but September was a crazy month with all the magic happening here in Louisville. We had our It's Magic show which was one of the most successful ever. We had the Hometown Magic Event which was part of the Cool Kentucky exhibit at the Frazier and we wrapped up that weekend with a lecture by International Brotherhood of Magicians president Ken Scott.

This month our meeting is at the end of the month, October 26 at 7PM in the Community Room at St Lawrence Catholic Church. It's our Spooky and Illusion themed meeting. I believe members plan to meet at 5:00 at Roosters on Dixie for dinner beforehand.

The Unconventional Convention, sponsored by IBM Ring 198 (the Lexington Magic Guild) is November 5-6 at the DuPont Lodge at Cumberland Falls. Lance Burton is the special guest this year and it's a great getaway and good time with magical friends. Consider going if you can.

Our November event will be our Dr. Robert Escher Close-up and Parlor competition and Election of Officers. David Garrard and Sherman Minton are working on our ballot and Jim Harris is working on our contest. Please contact Jim if you'd like to enter. The contest and election will be at the Four Points Sheraton on Crittenden Drive.

The SAM Assembly in Indianapolis is having Joshua Jay lecture on Wednesday, November 17 at 7PM. Cost is $25 or $15 if under 18.

Speaking of Josh Jay, he has a new book out called How Magicians Think. As an IBM Ring we are able to buy them at a bulk discounted price. If you'd like a copy let me know at our next meeting and if we have 10 or more we can order for the discounted price. Retail for $27.50 – Your price would be $15. I'll have a copy at the meeting.

Coming up in December is our Holiday banquet, First VP, Bo Gullidge has been working hard putting together a great family event to close out our year. We'll have our plated meal and a show featuring Mike Woodward and other club members. We'll also hand out our contest awards. In 2019 meals were $30 for adults ($20 for 12 and under) and show only tickets were $15. We'll let you know as soon as we can about this years' cost for the meals.
