From the President | Out of My Hat

We had a nice turnout at our last meeting for the spooky theme. We had a few show up in costume and present their acts. Tom Crecelius did two nice storytelling routines and had us on the edge of our seats as he wove his tales not wanting to touch a cursed piece of rope. Dr. Crow and Nurse Crow shared some spooky magic including the guillotine finger chopper and a full-sized guillotine in which Dr. Crow himself was the victim. Other performers included Cody Clark, Joanna Logsdon, and Guillermo Sanchez who was a first-time guest. It was a fun night.

We'll be heading down to Cumberland Falls State Park for the Unconventional Convention, sponsored by IBM Ring 198 in Lexington. This is always held the first weekend in November, so if you can't make it this year try to check it out next year.

Coming up for our November meeting is our Dr. Robert Escher close-up and parlor competition at the Four Points Sheraton on Crittenden Drive on Tuesday, November 9th at 7 PM. Come join us for a meal at Cracker Barrel before at 5:00 which is diagonal across the street.

We will also have our election of officers at our November meeting. Our nominating committee has developed a slate of officers. Remember if you would like to be an officer since we are a combined club of the IBM and SAM you should have membership in both to sit on our board as an officer. Plus being a member of our national organizations has so many benefits and connects you to magicians all over the world and many online resources consider joining one or both if you are able.

Our Holiday Banquet closes the year and that is on Saturday, December 11 at the Kosair Shrine at 4120 Bardstown Road. This includes a plated meal and magic show. Get your tickets for the dinner early so we can prepare our seating charts. Tickets are $25 per meal.

Looking ahead Patrick Thernes "Sir Patrick" would like to bring his lecture to the club in January. This is a lecture based on the theater of magic and finding and developing your character and comes from his mentorship by Joanie Spina.

Looking forward to seeing everyone's act for the competition and getting together for our Holiday banquet.

Mike
