My Monthly Musings

Jim Harris, President

Dates have been set for our club's activities for the rest of the year (except for October). Please check the website often: www.lmcmagic.com

The Louisville IBM/SAM convention was a smashing success. Many say it was the best convention they have ever attended. I met one of my long time idols, Juliana Chen, plus performers from Russia, Australia, China, Japan, and a few countries I can't pronounce. Thanks to everyone who made this a successful convention.

The picnic is rapidly approaching, make plans now to attend. Be sure to bring one or two magic items that you would like to part with – we're planning a professional auction with auctioneer Dennis Alm. And be sure to bring a few extra dollars in case one of the shiny "new" props catches your eye.

See you at the picnic.

Jim

From the Editor: UNITY IN MAGIC

I'm writing this as I have just returned from a wonderful week of magic at the IBM/SAM Combined Convention that was held here in Louisville. This years convention honored two of our own; Lance Burton and Mac King. The first time I met Mac, he was working the magic counter at Caufields, and he invited me to this meeting of magicians called the Louisville Magic Club. That was back in 1981-82! It was there that I met Harry Collins, who introduced me to Lance Burton.

Tuesday night we had a red carpet premier of Lance's movie Billy Topit Master Magician. Now available on DVD. The proceeds from ticket sales benefited the Kentucky Humane Society, and they received $1700 from Lance at one of the shows.

The convention had about 1200 magicians from all over the globe, some great shows, and lectures--the close-up show was amazing! The dealer room had dealers from Japan, Argentina, Africa, China, Korea and the USA-- 45 in all! I probably spent a little more than I should have but I think I picked up some great additions to my show.

While at the convention I attended both the I.B.M and S.A.M. board meetings. This is where you get to hear what really goes on in the organizations. I was glad to hear the Louisville Magic Club receive a nice mention--we are certainly the club to model. I would highly recommend that you look at joining the S.A.M or I.B.M. or both in addition to your LMC membership.

Cody Clark received the rising star award at the S.A.M Meeting, and he and Brendon Ware are co-chairs for I am SAM Next: a program to target 18 - 35 year olds and get them more involved in magic and the SAM. I'll be sharing more news from the board meetings as we finish out the year.

--Michael

It's Magic! is fast approaching and we need your help!

This year we are doing a small program for the show. We are selling ads for that program and the ad space revenue will help us pay for the theater rental and will help us to generate more income from ticket sales. If you are a member who performs we'd like you to consider taking out an 1/8 page ad. You can also just be a patron and use the add for well wishing such as "Have a great show, John and Jane Doe!".

If you can't afford an ad, PLEASE Buy at least TWO tickets to the show.

ADVERTISING RATES:

1/8 Page Ad	$50.00 (Includes 2 tickets to the show)
1/4 Page Ad	$125.00 (Includes 4 Tickets to the show)
1/2 Page Ad	$250. 00 (Includes 6 tickets to the show)
Full Page Ad	$500.00 (Includes 10 tickets to the show)

To place your ad, or for more information contact Michael Raymer, It's Magic! advertising manager by phone or email at: 502-644-7829 or funmagic@iglou.com

Artwork deadline is August 15th
