From the President | Out of My Hat

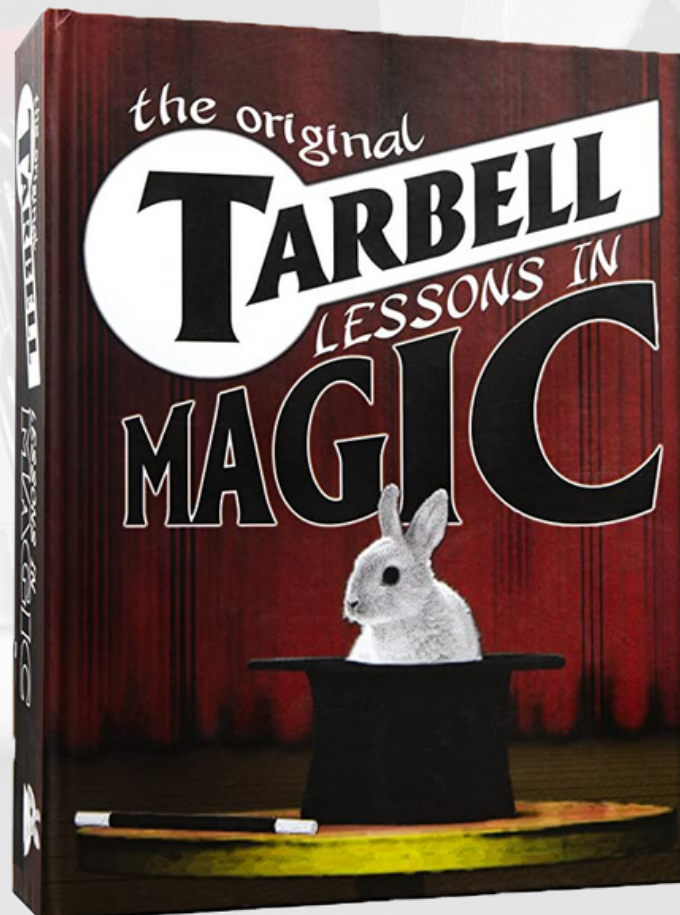

As we enter September, I am preparing for my 54th birthday on the 8th. I do miss our in-person meetings and looking forward to when we can meet again together as a group without a video screen between us. Until that time comes, we will continue holding the online Zoom meetings. The Zoom meetings are good and give us a chance to see everyone who joins in, so if you haven't joined us, I encourage you to join us at our next Zoom meeting. Our next meeting will be an online Zoom Lecture on Sunday, September 20, at 4:00 PM, where we'll have a lecture by Past National President of the S.A.M. – Dal Sanders. Dal is a nice guy and a lot of fun. Both Dal and his wife Cinde have been professional performers for several years and reside in Dallas, Texas. This will be a fun lecture, and you won't want to miss it. Dal's magic is all stand-up; this will not be a Close-Up lecture. Dal will give us more insights about the S.A.M. (Society of American Magicians), so if you want to learn more, bring your questions. I've also been asked again by S.A.M. Regional VP John Midgley to continue as a Deputy for him for Kentucky. If you are not a S.A.M. member, I would highly recommend it. To be an officer of the LMC, you have to be a member of both the I.B.M. and S.A.M. – there are many benefits to being a member. We'll continue having Zoom meetings and Zoom hangouts probably until the first of the year, at which point the board will reconvene and see if state and local guidelines allow us to meet together in person safely. See you on the 20th!

Michael

Wisdom from Tarbell

You must expect to find someone in every audience who will try to belittle your ability as an entertainer and magician. If you are not sure of yourself, such a person can make your performance a farce. He may expose your secrets and make you a failure as a Magician. Let no move of any trick remain unmastered. The less mystery there is to you in a trick -- the more mystery it will have for the audience.

BE SURE THAT YOU CAN DO YOUR TRICK before demonstrating it. With practice will come self confidence, ease of performance, and unquestionable ability to put it across. (Tarbell pg. 16)

There will be more performers announced over the next couple of weeks, but there will also be some surprises that will not be announced in advance. The only way you will know about them is if you are there. IF we can ask a favor, tell your magic friends about this. If you are on any magic social media, please post it. If you have a way to notify your local magic club, please do so. You can direct them to the MAES website, maesconvention.com, or to the Facebook Page, The Magicians Alliance of Eastern States. Thanks in advance.

If you wish to enter the competition, please send an e-mail to the same address, maesconvention@gmail.com. You will be sent the form to fill out along with instructions on how to submit your videos.

Don't delay, sign up today. You can't beat the price and you don't even have to get out of your PJ's to attend. E-mail maesconvention@gmail.com and we will see you there!
