Louisville Witches and Wizards are cordially invited to celebrate a Magical Evening at the Louisville Palace's Yule Ball on Friday, December 21! Wands and Dress robes are encouraged for formal Yule Ball Waltz Dance Lessons. Then, let loose with Louisville's own, Delighters, for a rock performance featuring renditions of musical hits from the movie!

Grab a butter beer and be dazzled by magical act David Garrard.

Take a stroll through Diagon Alley with live owls, snakes, and toads or stop by for a palm reading by Professor Trelawney. Get your Azkaban mug shot or just hang with your favorite character before you head off to the Horcrux Hunt! Go the extra mile and be a part of Dumbledore's Army VIP experience and have dinner with us in the Room of Requirement! This event will be the most magical event of the year! Potterhead's do not miss it! This event is 18 years and older!

We have TWO tickets to the Yule Ball. Winners will be selected at the November 13th meeting. Get your chance at our next meeting.

CHALLENGE OF THE MONTH

Learn some magic history! If you have all the tricks you think your routine needs right now, look up some history on those tricks or the history of magic overall. You can learn a lot. Plus, it could help your performance! Let us know what you learned at the next meeting you come to! Good luck and happy reading!

LMC members and guests meet informally for dinner around 5:30 p.m. on meeting nights.

OUT OF MY HAT

Michael Raymer
President

As I write this I'm thinking about how fast this year has gone by and that we are nearly done with 2018.

The months of November and December will go out with a bang! Many of us will be attending the Unconventional Convention at Cumberland Falls Resort, November 2 and 3rd. Thursday, November 8th is a lecture by Boris Wild, a French magician, who has many effects on the market. Please bring cash if you'd like to buy something as Boris will not be able to take checks or Credit Cards.

The Dr. Robert Escher Close-up and Parlor Competition and election of officers for 2019 will be Tuesday, November 13. Please consider performing in the contest – its great experience and you could win a prize! In December, we will have a lecture by Duane Laflin, on Friday, December 14 and then the next night, December 15, he is our headliner at our holiday banquet. Thanks go out to Pat Miller for arranging to have the Kosair Banquet Hall and to Bo Gullledge, first VP, for organizing the Holiday Banquet. Please note that reservations are required for the holiday banquet and our reservation deadline is November 30.

I've already been in touch with many performers who want to lecture for our club next year and we are in talks with them to get a schedule that will have something for everyone. We are also looking at having many more performing opportunities and learning opportunities for our members. The Bag O'Magic Challenge and Tarbell night were examples of those types of activities and we're always open to your feedback to what YOU want because this is YOUR club. I love seeing the diversity that our club has and the camaraderie that we share. Part of it is our southern hospitality, but a bigger part is that we have a really great bunch of people who love magic. In my 37 years as a member of the club, I have met a lot of great people come and go, but I really feel that the club we have today is more welcoming than ever. Here's to a great end for 2018 and a great beginning for 2019!

Michael

EDITORIAL NOTE:

Please have all articles for inclusion in the next bulletin issue to us by the 20th of the Month.

From the Editor,

Wow! October has come and gone in a flash! I hope you're getting prepared for the end of the year! Speaking of the end of the year, don't forget to pay your yearly dues! It's good to get them in early so you don't have to worry about it down the road.

November and December are jam-packed with some great events! Coming up November 8, we have a lecture from Boris Wild. Shortly after that, on November 13, we have our annual close-up contest. I hope you've been practicing your routines! We should have some great competition this year.

December will bring us our annual holiday banquet. You can find the reservation sheet on the last page of this month's bulletin.

And if you look to the left of this page, you'll see information for the Yule Ball presented by the Louisville Palace. David Garrard will be performing there that evening. I will definitely be there, sporting my Gryffindor gear! Hope to see you there!

Stay Magical and see you at the next meeting.

Matt
