Dr. Robert Escher Close-up and Parlor Competition
Tuesday, November 15, 2016

The 2016 Dr. Robert Escher Close-up and Parlor Competition is quickly approaching. It is scheduled for November 15th.

This year's theme is Close-up & Parlor Magic. Anything that you can do on a table, or with coins, cards, and other small objects is allowed. Things like linking rings, rope tricks, and small format mentalism tricks are allowed.

There will be prizes for first, second, and third place in the Senior category, as well as first and second place in the Junior category. We will also have a People's Choice Winner.

We are working on having a particular sponsor provide participation gifts to all participants as well as prizes for the winners. In addition, a certificate and cash prizes will be awarded to the winners.

If you are interested in competing, please contact Ken Abbott at kenabbott55@gmail.com.

My Monthly Musings

Jim Harris, President

Another “It’s Magic” is history, and it was an excellent show. Triple Threat performed three excellent sets, and other LMC members performed some excellent material. Wally Bell closed the show with the best sword cabinet I’ve ever seen, with a kicker surprise ending. Although the auditorium was only half full, the audience reaction was excellent. Thanks again to David Garrard for a successful event.

LMC magic pins are in the works. They will be $10 each, and should be available soon. If you agreed to purchase a pin, please pick one up when they’re available. I think they really look really nice, and become a conversation piece when you are wearing one.

See you October 11.

Jim

From the Editor:

THE RESULTS:

The It’s Magic! show was in September and we had a decent crowd. This years theme was Hit Me With Your Best Shot - where performers showed their one best trick. The performers all did an excellent job and I heard people say this was the best show yet because there was so much variety in the acts. A big Thanks to all involved and all who purchased tickets.

A great Big THANK YOU to David Garrard for producing this show and lining up all the talent. It’s a lot of work especially given his busy schedule . The results are in and I thought you’d like to see how we did:

We took in 222 tickets at the door, with 66 of them being children. We probably had another 15 without tickets (total attendance was approx. 237).

|                     |                  |
|---------------------|------------------|
| Gross Show Income : | $1757.77        |
| Show Expenses:      | $ 975.27 |
| Total net to club:  | $ 782.50        |

We need YOU to show us your best in the Dr. Robert Escher Close-Up and Parlor Competition at our November meeting.

--Michael

Lecture by LION Tuesday, October 11

If you've been in the club the last 10 years or more you will remember LION as one of the top close-up magicians in our club and winner of our annual close-up and parlor competition for several years. LION says that this lecture will have lots of time for Q&A about his journey from KY to Las Vegas.

Including some extras that he will teach involving his simple and powerful routines for TV and the street. He'll teach some of his ideas on two of the most powerful card moves; classic force, being taught by J.C Wagner and worked with Paul Green and the top change.

Lion is still relatively new in magic, so he brings fresh ideas that are simple, but create powerful routines and he will discuss the ultimate power of marked decks.

He'll talk about his several TV appearances, how and who to contact to get on TV, how his Las Vegas move has gone and all the good and bad from it.

"I'll be bringing some items from cardshark so if there anything special someone may want from the site let me know and I'll see if I can bring it." - Lion Fludd

Other Coming Events:

Tuesday, December 6, brings us Harry Allen with Daytona Magic and we will have our Annual Holiday Banquet and show on December 10th at the Kosair Charities Center on Bardstown Road.

We are finalizing the details on the holiday banquet but we have a great show lined up for you and a nice traditional holiday dinner.
