My Monthly Musings

Jim Harris, President

Dan Harlan's lecture last month was simply awesome. Dan knocked it out of the park with his magic, delivery, and personality. We had over 40 people at the lecture – a great turn-out for a Thursday lecture. If you missed Dan's lecture, well, you missed Dan's lecture! His Penn & Teller fooler is available on Penguin Magic (Card-Toon), and his other effects are available at: Danharlanmagic.com

Our annual picnic is August 13 – please bring your family, relatives, and friends – the more the merrier. This club function is open to anyone that wants to attend. Dinner is only $5, and you will love the gourmet selections prepared by chef Ray Adams. This year's show will be produced by the Lexington Magic Club. Mike Woodward promises a show you will remember for years to come.

If you haven't made your reservations for the Unconventional Convention, there's still time. The convention is November 4th and 5th, and is always a fun time. It's held at Cumberland Falls, near Corbin, KY. If you're new to performing, and want to perform on stage, here's your chance. Anyone is welcome!! This is a great way to break into stage performing. Call 606-528-4121 to reserve a room, and let me know if you want to be in the show!

September 9 is "It's Magic", and although it's a month away, it's time to book the entertainment. If you want to perform in our annual stage show, please call David Garrard at 502-905-2512. We still need some strong acts to fill the bill.

Jim

From the Editor:

Michele and I had a blast at the S.A.M. convention in Indianapolis. Other LMC attendees we saw were Ray Tillman, Norris Priest and Cody Clark. Next year the combined convention is in Louisville and registrations are already on sale. Here's the link <http://www.ibmsam2017.com/> Registration is $295 until the end of August. Rooms at the Galt House start around $117 a night.

I hope we can have a big showing of LMC Members - maybe we'll look at making up some special shirts for club members to wear to identify local magicians. Start reading up on local eating places and such to direct our guests. Everyone at the convention was excited about Louisville - I had some of the performers tell me they can't wait to come back here.

Our biggest events of the year are upon us. In August we have our picnic at Sherrell Nunnelley's home on the river; then we have our It's Magic Show in September. In November we have our close-up and parlor magic competition and in December we have our holiday banquet.

We really need your help for this year's It's Magic Show. If every member would purchase just 2 tickets that would help tremendously. If you can't go to the show then find someone with a child and give them the tickets and let them experience the joy of magic.

Spread the word... tell everyone in your family, tell your church (my church lets me hang posters up!), grab a poster and hang it up at a business in a 10 mile radius of the show location. Share the facebook posts - tell people on twitter - it's really simple to promote this show.

Tickets run $10 for Adults and $8 for Children. Where can you find better quality entertainment at THAT price? Online ticket sales are up and running and we're already selling tickets. The link is <https://lmc.ticketleap.com/its-magic-2016/>

See you at the Picnic,
Michael
