Bill Cook Lecture Tuesday April 10.

My lecture is on the Magic of the Chicago Masters: Bert Allerton, Heba Haba Al, Matt Schulien, Eugene Burger, Jim Steinmeyer, Ed Marlo, and Harlan Tarbell.

Chicago is the birthplace of what we now consider to be "Close-Up Magic," but that doesn't mean that we only do close-up! My lecture is full of magic that can be performed both close-up AND stand-up, giving everyone in the room something they can work with. From the beginner hobbyist, to the working pro, there is something for everyone.

About Bill Cook

Three-time award winner at the prestigious World Magic Seminar in Las Vegas, Bill Cook has been hailed by his peers as the Young Master of Magic. Bill has been featured nationally, and internationally on every major television network including ABC, CBS, NBC, Showtime, SYFY, the CW network, and Italy's Cannale-5. Most recently, he has appeared on Penn & Teller's Fool Us, and on both the national-tour and television series Masters of Illusion.

Bill has studied and trained at the world-famous Second City Comedy school, and is a guest faculty member of the McBride Magic and Mystery School, the world's most prestigious magic school based in Las Vegas, Nevada.

OUT OF MY HAT

Michael Raymer
President

March was a magical month, several of us attended the Winter Carnival of Magic in Pigeon Forge, TN. We were treated to a lecture by Fielding West and along with him were Lance Burton, Keith West and Michael Goudeau, who had spent the week in Louisville preparing for the Lance Burton and Friend's Show at the Palace on Saturday, March 24. Our own, Cody Clark was invited by Lance to perform a portion of his one man show: Cody Clark a Different Way of Thinking on the Saturday show.

One of the highlights of the week was a broken wand ceremony and unveiling of the grave marker for Thomas Tobin at Cave Hill Cemetery. Thomas was a magical inventor from the 1800's whom the magic community had lost trace of until some investigation by Lance and Jim Steinmeyer. So once again we see that Louisville has a rich history in the art of magic! If you get a chance go see the memorial also check out the one for Harry Collins, Lance's mentor, and one of the club's original founding members.

I want to thank Jim Harris for helping me send out some club announcements -- our house is undergoing a basement renovation and my computer has been disconnected...thanks Jim!

I'm really excited about our lecture. I first met Bill Cook when he was in town when Mac King held the Louisville Magic Festival. Bill had come down from Chicago, and I knew when I met him he was a very talented magician. He has appeared on Masters of Illusion, Penn and Teller Fool Us, performed at the Magic Castle and just recently returned from performing on a cruise ship. He's like the magical energizer bunny! You don't want to miss this one!

Come meet us for dinner at Panera Bread on Poplar Level road around 5:30 prior to the lecture. See you at the Bill Cook lecture!

Michael

"Perform as many times as you can,
in front of people you don't know."
-- Lance Burton

EDITORIAL NOTE:

Please have all articles for inclusion in the next bulletin issue to us by the 20th of the Month.

We're LIVE! Steve Haffner, our new webmaster, has worked hard on getting our new web site up and running and we are now live. The new site is designed to show up better on all your devices. So go check us out at www.louisvillemagicclub.com.

It's Magic! is our annual fundraiser for our club. The proceeds from It's Magic! helps to offset the cost of lectures and room rentals so that you can attend all our events just for the price of your dues. Many other clubs charge $15 - $25 per lecture in addition to the membership dues.

This year's show will be our 30th Anniversary Show! We will once again be printing a program for the show. Everyone who advertises will get a number of tickets to the show. If you know a small business who would be an advertiser, please let us know.

If you are a performer who gets PAID for performing, this is a great opportunity to advertise YOUR magic show too!

The cost to get quality lecturers is increasing every year, so lets make this our biggest year and sell out the theater! David Garrard, our show producer, is pulling out all the stops and this will be one of our best shows yet! But, to be successful, we need YOU and your support! Backstage helpers, curtain pullers, performers, or just buy a ticket! Tickets for our show are only $10 for adults and $5 for kids so start spreading the word.
